Social Programme (Nizwa city)

Nizwa is one of the oldest cities in Oman and once a centre of trade, religion, education and art. Its Jama (grand mosque) was formerly a centre for Islamic learning. The birthplace of Younis Al-Riyami, Nizwa acquired its importance as an important meeting point at the base of the Western Hajar Mountains. Set amid a verdant spread of date palms, it is strategically located at the crossroads of routes linking the interior with Muscat and the lower reaches of Dhofar. Today, Nizwa is a diverse prosperous place with numerous agricultural, historical and recreational aspects as well as a centre for date growing and a market place for the area.
